Join us this summer on a full-day cruise in Lyme Bay, off Dorset’s Jurassic coast, as we search for White-beaked Dolphins and other cetaceans, as well as Sunfish, Basking Sharks and much more, in the company of cetacean expert, Tom Brereton.
Full Day – Lyme Bay Wildlife Cruise
(8.00am – 5.00pm departing from Brixham, Devon)

Departures
Departures will be arranged at short notice to coincide with periods of favourable weather.

Cost
£120

Focus
On these cruises we will head out into the deep waters of Lyme Bay in search of White-beaked and other dolphins. We will keep in contact with other local skippers to maximise our chances of finding dolphins, and a good diversity of seabirds may also be expected including Shearwaters, Skuas, Petrels and Terns.

Accommodation
There are plenty of good Hotels/B&B’s in Brixham such as the Anchorage Guest House www.brixham-anchorage.co.uk, Sampford Guest House www.sampfordhouse.com and The White Horse Hotel www.whitehorseguesthouse.co.uk. You can also use the search engines of www.laterooms.com or www.booking.com
